

High quality music tuition, opportunities and events for young people

Summary

Waltham Forest Music Service is the lead partner in Waltham Forest Music Education Hub (WFMEH) which was established in 2018. The Service provides children and young people from all backgrounds with a wide range of music making opportunities and offers pupils the opportunity to learn an instrument, to learn to sing, to make music with others and to fulfil their potential in music.

More details

Our students receive high-quality music education with routes for progression, benefiting from working with professional musicians and organisations. Experienced practitioners will meet the individual needs of school and will lead on the development of music programmes in schools and across the borough whilst supporting the delivery of ambitious music plans.

We have up-to-the-minute access to the latest initiatives and developments in music education and are also an ABRSM exam centre, supporting students through every stage of examination preparation. Our staff also includes Artsaward centre assessors.
