

Baby Room Project (3 sessions - all sessions to be attended)

Date Thu, 17 Nov 2016 09:30 - 12:30

Description Please note - this is a 3-session course starting on 3 November with the other 2 sessions on 17 November & 1 December (all sessions must be attended)

What will the course cover?

To increase knowledge about baby brain development

To highlight the importance of loving and meaningful interactions

To consider how the use of colour may affect our emotions

To understand the effects of laughing on the brain

To highlight simple play experiences to promote joy and laughter

To understand the importance of quality interactions

Venue Waltham Forest College, Forest Road, Walthamstow, London E17 4JB

Name Early Years Teaching and Learning Support

BookingInfo

For more details and information on the session, please contact Elisha Brett at

<mailto:elisha.brett@walthamforest.gov.uk> or phone 07773 046322

Outline

Practitioners from PVI sector childcare settings with a baby room will develop an understanding of the developmental needs of babies in an Early Years setting

Outcome

What are the planned outcomes for the delegate?

Practitioners will understand the developmental needs of babies in an Early Years setting

Practitioners will offer a sympathetic and stimulating environment for babies

Practitioners will understand the importance of the key worker system to support attachment and emotional well-being

Audience Practitioners from Private, Voluntary and Independent (PVI) sector childcare settings with a baby room

Training Id 382591479375000

Source URL: <https://thehub.walthamforest.gov.uk/training-events/baby-room-project-3-sessions-all-sessions-be-attended-0>