

Team around the Family (TAF) Training

Date Wed, 14 Dec 2016 13:30 - 16:30

Description A TAF is a meeting that brings together children, young people, parents and practitioners and its function is to ensure families have an equal role in agreeing goals and actions that reflect the needs identified. A TAF allows information to be shared and ensures services are coordinated so that effective action and outcomes are properly planned, delivered and reviewed.
