

Preventing Homophobic, Biphobic and Transphobic Bullying

Date Tue, 27 Jun 2017 18:30 - 20:30

Description The free two-hour training will include advice and support on:

- Introduction to HBT bullying: What is HBT bullying, how does it differ from other forms of bullying. Who is affected by it and what impact does it have? What are the main obligations for tackling HBT bullying?
- Supporting transgender young people: What does it mean to be a transgender young person and what barriers do they face at school? What additional support do you need to ensure that your school has in place?
- The role of leaders and governors: How can you lead on this work? Which policies should you focus on improving? What questions should you be asking?
- Action planning: What practical steps can you take in your school after the training? Where can you get support to help as you lead on this work?

The interactive training is a wonderful opportunity to connect with other schools, share best practice and address any questions or concerns about tackling HBT bullying in your school.

Venue Frederick Bremer School, Siddeley Road, Walthamstow, London, E17 4EY

Name Public Health

BookingInfo

Please email shim@diversityrolemodels.org to confirm your place.

Outline

Diversity Role Models [https://www.diversityrolemodels.org](https://www.diversityrolemodels.org "https://www.diversityrolemodels.org") are running a free CPD event for senior leaders and governors in Waltham Forest on preventing homophobic, biphobic and transphobic (HBT) bullying.

Outcome

Audience All senior leaders and governors from Waltham Forest schools.

Training Id 53502

Course code PUBH-0617-T002

Source URL: <https://thehub.walthamforest.gov.uk/training-events/preventing-homophobic-biphobic-and-transphobic-bullying>