

'Talk about Alcohol' training incl. free resource - Secondary, College & PRUs

Date Tue, 17 Oct 2017 13:00 - 16:30

Description Public Health have commissioned the Alcohol Education Trust to deliver training to PSHE leads around their Talk about Alcohol (TAA) programme, and provide all secondary, PRU and college settings with a hardcopy resource, worth £90. The TAA programme focuses on enabling young people to have a healthy relationship with alcohol, helping them to build resilience skills, know how to avoid risky situations and learn how to look after themselves and each other.

The teacher training session will cover planning, guidance, how to use the games, activities and resources, what is suitable for different ages, evaluation and how the programme supports safeguarding and Ofsted.

The Alcohol Education Trust has a seven year track record of delivering effective alcohol education across the UK. The 'Talk About Alcohol (TAA) programme is used in over 1,400 schools across the UK and is quality assured and accredited by The Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) Association. It is also the only alcohol prevention schools programme to be awarded 3/3 for effectiveness and 5/6 for the quality of its evaluation by the Mentor-ADEPIS Centre for Analysis of Youth Transitions evaluation matrix.
