Notes:

1. It was up to the academies to determine whether their representative is a headteacher, governor or someone else.
2. It was up to the special schools to determine whether their representative was a headteacher or a governor.
3. One of the maintained community schools representatives had to be a headteacher or governor of a nursery school.
4. Since that date the non-school representative for vulnerable pupils was changed to being the Pupil Referral Unit representative raising total number of schools members to 18.
